

Position Title: Senior Accounting Manager

Organizational Chart:

Overview:

A growing organization has engaged Accountants One in a confidential search for a Senior Manager. This crucial role requires exceptional leadership directing a team of Staff and Senior Accountants, while supporting the Director of Corporate Accounting.

The position requires a dynamic / flexible leader that desires career growth. A positive “can do” attitude is needed for this critical role. The individual must have a strong track record of achieving corporate objectives. While work-life-balance is important for this department and this company, many goals need to be achieved over the next year. Therefore, only those who go above and beyond will be considered.

The focus of this position will be around tradition accounting responsibilities. A combination of public and private company experience and consistent career growth will be strongly considered in evaluating the right candidate for this critical role.

Company Size:

$8B+ / 700 employees at headquarters – 75,000 worldwide

Position Location:

Raleigh, North Carolina

Travel Required:

This position will require heavy travel for the first 4 to 6 months.

Reports to / Manages:

Director / A department of two managers and their team of Senior/Staff Accountants

Salary Structure:

$110K -- $125K

Duties/Responsibilities:

- Provide effective leadership to a team of Senior and Staff Accountants in meeting corporate accounting objectives.
- Supervise the month and quarter end closing of the general ledger, and lead the team in preparing month-end journal entries and evaluating account balances. Also, manage the team in performing reconciliations and analysis of corporate balance sheets, P & Ls, and corporate bank accounts.
- Enact and enforce proper technical accounting practices to account for all transactions, including high-level areas of technical accounting.
- Use effective management techniques to ensure the accuracy and compliance of corporate general and administrative statements as well as providing timely statements to cost center owners regarding charges, variances, etc.
- Supervise the meeting of all departmental deadlines.
- Work with auditors on a quarterly and yearly basis.
- Adhere to all departmentally prescribed controls (SOX) of processes to maintain accuracy and reliability of financial information.

Additional responsibilities:

- Provide expertise to all personnel as needed.
- Create a “can-do” environment within the department by portraying exceptional leadership skills
- Special projects as requested by the Director / Corporate Controller.

Required Qualifications:

- Accounting Degree required.
- CPA a must
- Strong ERP exposure a must
- 8+ years of combined public accounting and industry experience.